Recovered work hours at FASTFIVE were sufficient to focus on our clients.

Thanks to FASTFIVE, I was able to reduce a lot of office management work. It is convenient to use it because the managers communicate with the building management office on our behalf.

The reason we returned after using rented buildings was FASTFIVE's full floor office.

FASTFIVE offers private spaces like a corporate building but handles facility management for us, making it convenient. Since returning to FASTFIVE, I've been able to focus on HR tasks again.

A fully-optioned short-term office with no management stress is only available at FASTFIVE.

The full-option setup for short-term use, including network and furniture, is a huge advantage. There's no need to hire cleaning staff separately. For companies that need short-term offices regularly, FASTFIVE is the top recommendation.

Frequently Asked Questions

Frequently Asked Questions

Isn’t rental office cheaper?

Using an office incurs other costs besides rent, such as maintenance, heating/cooling, cleaning, network, and rental costs. FASTFIVE solves these with a single monthly fee, covering rent and facility management.

Isn’t building access and facility reservation cumbersome?

FASTFIVE is dedicated to smart work. With the mobile app, you can access the office without a physical card, book facilities, and contact support—all through the app. Enjoy FASTFIVE's convenient smart work system for free.

Isn’t free coffee and a couple of meeting rooms all there is?

FASTFIVE members can reserve and use work facilities at any of the 44 branches anytime. Experience top-tier facilities including 470 meeting rooms, fully equipped studios, and efficiency-boosting rest areas, exclusive to the number one office brand.

The deposit is so low it’s suspicious.

Deposits, a protective measure for landlords to secure rent, are typically set at 10 times the monthly rent or more, especially in popular areas like Gangnam. FASTFIVE reduces this burden by only requiring the minimum deposit necessary for a genuine contract!

Does heating/cooling really turn off after 6 PM?

FASTFIVE operates heating and cooling systems 24/7. Even small offices and meeting rooms have individually controlled systems, ensuring no one feels too hot or cold. This individualized climate control system comes at no extra charge.

Is it just a temporary place for startups?

FASTFIVE accommodates a variety of company sizes, from single-person startups to 50-person firms with custom offices reflecting their identity, and even large corporations over 70 years old. Without expansion fees, FASTFIVE is ideal for long-term use.
